Accordingly, approximately one-third of the directors' terms of office shall expire each year. Each director shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors for three full consecutive three-year terms. Thereafter such director must cease to serve for a least one year before being eligible for election to the Board of Directors of the corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each of William Swinney and Kathleen Swinney shall be eligible to be elected to serve an unlimited number of consecutive terms as directors. Any person who is elected to replace a director whose term has expired shall be elected to serve a three-year term. Any person elected to replace a director who dies, resigns or is removed prior to the expiration of his term shall serve for the remainder of such director's unexpired term. Directors need not be residents of the State of South Carolina.

- Section 3 Election of Directors. The directors shall be elected by the vote of the directors then in office; and those persons who receive the highest number of votes at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be deemed to have been elected. If any director so demands, the election of directors shall be by ballot.
- Section 4 Removal. Any director may be removed at any time with or without cause by the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Without limiting the generality of the forgoing, any director who fails to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the meetings of the Board of Directors in any fiscal year shall be removed unless a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall vote to permit such director to complete the unexpired portion of his term as director.
- Section 5 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring among the directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors even though less than a quorum or by the sole remaining director. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.
- Section 6 Compensation. Directors shall not be compensated for their services as such but may be reimbursed for any or all reasonable and documented expenses incurred in attending regular and special meetings of the Board.

ARTICLE III

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

- Section 1 Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held annually at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place as the Board of Directors may designate. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed with postage thereon prepaid. If sent by facsimile or electronic mail, such notice shall be deemed delivered upon receipt of an electronic acknowledgment of delivery. Such notice need not specify the purpose for which the meeting is called.

- Section 4 Waiver of Notice. Any director may waive notice of any meeting.
